

REMARKS

The Examiner has changed the heading on page 4, line 7, from "The Drawings" to "Brief Description of the Illustrated Embodiment". In his telephone call to the undersigned attorney, the Examiner said that the change was required to meet the requirements for the arrangement of the application as set forth in Rule 37 CFR 1.77. However, in the section of the application that describes the drawings, the heading "Brief Description of the Illustrated Embodiment" does not seem to properly describe the section. According to Rule 37 CFR 1.77 which provides the suggested headings for the application, the proper heading would appear to be "Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawings". This is the heading indicated by Rule 37 CFR 1.77 that should be between the "Summary of the Invention" and the "Detailed Description of the Invention". This heading would also be more descriptive of the subject matter of the section under the heading. Therefore, applicant requests the heading on Page 4, line 7 be changed to read "Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawings".

Please charge any additional fees due, or deposit any overpayments, to Deposit Account No. 20-0100 of the undersigned.

Dated this 10th day of May, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,
